

Errata & Clarification File for Plantagenet

Added/Changed items are in red

Errata :

Rules of play :

Page 24 : Scenario II. Warwick's Rebellion, 1469-1471

Foreign Haven : • Whenever Warwick goes into Exile upon Yorkist Approach (4.3.5) or Dies as a defender (4.4.3) , shift all Lancastrian Lords on the Calendar (including Warwick) leftward (only) to the current Turn; then shift all Yorkists on the Calendar leftward (only) to the next Turn.

Page 32 (back of the rules booklet) :

The actions requirement has some mistakes, the corrected Action Requirement Summary is as follow :

Action Requirements Summary

|          |                          | At FriendlyLocale? | Route? | CheckInfluence? | Deplete/Exhaust? | Special?                                                 |
|----------|--------------------------|------------------------|--------|---------------------|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| Levy     | Lord (3.4.2)             | ✓                      |        | ✓                   |                      | Target Lord's or Friendly Seat, free of Enemy            |
|          | Vassal (3.4.3)           | ✓                      |        | ✓                   |                      | Vassal's Seat Friendly, free of Enemy                    |
|          | Troops (3.4.4)           | ✓                      |        |                     | ✓                    | At Stronghold (not in Exile box)                         |
|          | Transport (3.4.5)        | ✓                      |        |                     |                      | At Port or in Exile box: may add Ship instead of Cart    |
|          | Capability (3.4.6)       | ✓                      |        |                     |                      | Until 2 cards / Lord (no discard)                        |
| Campaign | Parley(3.4.1, 4.6.4) |                        | ✓      | ✓                   |                      | Target Stronghold: Neutral or Enemy Favour               |
|          |                          |                        |        | ✓                   |                      | Adjacent (or by Sea): no Enemy Lord. At target: no check |
|          | March (4.3)              |                        |        |                     |                      | From Stronghold or Scotland. Path: entire card           |
|          | Supply (4.5)             | ✓                      | ✓      |                     | ✓                    | Route to Stronghold or Port: 1 Cart / Prov / Way         |
|          | Sail (4.6.1)             |                        |        |                     |                      | Ships from Port, Exile, Sea. Entire card. No Enemy Lord  |
|          | Forage (4.6.2)           |                        |        |                     | ✓                    | Enemy or Neutral Locale or Enemy adjacent: roll          |
|          | Tax (4.6.3)              | ✓                      | ✓      | ✓                   | ✓                    | Seat or Special Stronghold. Lord's Seat: no check        |

Playbook :

Page 7, right Column, under the image

Levy the Vassal Shrewsbury (3.4.3), now that Shrewsbury's Vassal Seat is Friendly. ~~Just as for his Parley, March needs a Route to the target Seat (there is one)~~

Page 31 :

Suspicion event :

Tips. Play at the Event step after Battle Array (4.4.1). Then choose one Friendly Lord and one Enemy Lord. The Friendly Lord must have a higher printed Influence rating than the Enemy ~~(1.5.2, including modifications by other cards)~~.

FAQ/Clarifications :

- 1) Sail action does not allow to go directly from a port to another port on another sea. Neither Great Ships, which affects only Parley, Tax and Supply
- 2) The Lord's Retinue and Vassals also count as forces during the Sail action
- 3) Exiled lords can only be mustered in their Exile box during the Muster Exiles phase.
- 4) Fallen Brother Capability, Clarence removal through the Foreign haven rule also counts.
- 5) Campaign game : If a scenario is Tied (IP at 0 at end of scenario), victory goes to the King.
- 6) Capability Hastings additional men-at-arms are removed during Waste.